(INTRO)

(1) It seems like such a common story, happening all the time
Two souls, trying to make a better life
The tough guys say they'll never change, take them, as they are
But that's just guaranteeing stress and strife

(PRE-CHOR) I know that staying with you means that, change has got to come
(a) In both of us, but who will be the first
Getting there is so intense, and often, so complex
I only hope, the end is worth the work

(CHORUS) I'll keep hope alive, for both of us
(a) You can't do it now, but you want someone to
I'll keep hope alive, for both of us
While you go do the things you need to do

(INTRO)

(2) We give each other space, it is the best for both today
We try to talk, we try, to be a friend
You see I've lost my confidence, and wonder what it means
I didn't think you'd notice, I pretend

(PRE-CHOR) I'm trying not to pressure you, and act as if I'm sure
(b) That soon, you will be able, to forgive
And maybe I'm just giving myself, nothing but false hope
But hope is like the air, I need to live

(CHORUS)
(a)
